National Day for Truth and Reconciliation in Cochrane

On Monday, September 30, 2024, Cochrane will observe the third National Day for Truth and Reconciliation. To honor this day, the Jack Tennant Memorial Bridge will glow in orange and flags at all Cochrane facilities will be lowered to half-mast. This solemn tribute acknowledges the lasting trauma caused by residential and day schools, and commemorates those who were lost, along with survivors and their families.

We invite you to join us at The Station at Cochrane Crossing from 12:30 p.m. to 6 p.m. for a meaningful event centered on education, reflection, and the steps we can take toward reconciliation.
