Processing Times and Deemed Refusals

Applicants are advised of their option under the Municipal Government Act to treat their application as being refused if the Development Authority fails to make a decision within 40 days of the application being deemed complete by the Development Authority, or at the expiry of an extended review timeframe specified by a time extension agreement between the Development Authority and Applicant. The Time Extension Agreement must be initiated by the Applicant and can be found here.

To exercise the "deemed refusal" option, an appeal to the Subdivision and Development Appeal Board must be filed within 21 days of the latest specified date for the review, or the right to an appeal is lost until such time as a decision is rendered on the application by the Development Authority.

Forms are updated periodically. Please ensure you have the most recent edition.
